

We are delighted to announce that Ross Mackenzie, author of The Nowhere Emporium, Shadowsmith, Zac and the Dream Pirates and Zac and the Dream Stealers will be visiting Hutchesons' Grammar School in May.

Ross will be talking about his books, his inspiration and the life of an author. Two of his books have won the Scottish Children's Book Award – the debut novel Zac and the Dream Pirates, and last year's winner The Nowhere Emporium.

The visit will take place at 11.30 am on Tuesday 23rd May and all S1 pupils will be attending as part of the English and Reading curriculum.

Books will be available to buy on the day (priced at £6.99) or you can bring along your own book for Ross to sign. If you would like to pre-order a book, please return the slip below to the Library with the payment by Wednesday 17th May 2017.

Thank you.
